Section 1 (continued)

6. Reconciliation

All reconciliation answers should be "Yes." If the answer to any of the reconciliation questions is "No," please explain on an attachment the reason the coverage does not comply with the requirements of the MPF Guides.

If the Actual Fidelity Insurance or the Actual E&O Insurance is insufficient, the Maximum Fidelity Deductible and/or Maximum E&O Deductible must be re-calculated using the new Actual Fidelity Insurance or Actual E&O Insurance amount obtained by the member to bring it into compliance with the MPF Program's Fidelity and E&O Insurance requirements.

Is the Fidelity Insurance sufficient? Yes No

Is the E&O Insurance sufficient? Yes No

Is the Fidelity Deductible acceptable? Yes No

Is the E&O Deductible acceptable? Yes No

Section 2

For questions 1a, 2a, 3a, 3b, and 4, if the answer is "No" please explain on an attachment the reason the coverage is not in compliance with the requirements of the MPF Guides.

1. Is the member covered under its parent's Fidelity Insurance or E&O Insurance policy? Yes No

a. If Yes, I certify that the coverage provided by the parent's policy meets the requirements of the MPF Guides. Yes No

2. I certify that no officer or director (including its principal owner) of the member has been removed from the fidelity bond coverage. Yes No

a. If No, I certify that a direct surety bond has been obtained for such officer or director. Yes No

3. Does the member's E&O Insurance policy place sublimits on the insurer's liability for the different types of losses? Yes No

a. If Yes, I certify that the policy provides for full liability on property insurance losses. Yes No

b. If Yes, I certify that the sublimits of liability equal at least fifteen percent (15%) of the liability that applies for property insurance. Yes No

4. I certify that our Fidelity Insurance and E&O Insurance policies comply with all requirements of the MPF Guides not specifically addressed in this Form OG2. Yes No

5. (Optional) It is helpful if the member provides the MPF Bank with the insurance agency's name and contact information in order to obtain clarification and information regarding the member's Fidelity and E&O Insurance coverage. Providing this insurance agent information does not relieve the member of its obligation to provide the requested information and documentation to its MPF Bank.

Quality Control (QC):

For the full list of QC requirements please consult the MPF Guides. The Guides are located at: www.fhlbmpf.com.

By signing the Application Statement Certification at the end of this application, as a representative officer of your institution, you are attesting to the fact that the eligibility requirements have been read and are understood, any information supplied by your institution is complete, true and correct, and your institution is in compliance with the statements made below.

QC Plan Requirements

1. An in-house QC plan is maintained in accordance with the requirements of the MPF Guides, including the following:
 - a. Loan selection process for pre- and post-closing QC reviews
 - b. Verification of data and documents
 - c. Timing of the pre- and post-closing QC reviews

Staff Requirements

2. Your institution has controls in place to ensure the post-closing QC department operates independently from the production department.
3. Staff performing the pre- and post-closing QC reviews are sufficiently experienced pursuant to established skill sets and expertise levels.
4. Staff training and minimum job qualifications to perform pre- and post-closing QC reviews are documented.

Loan File Documentation Requirements

5. All mortgage loan file documents are reviewed to ascertain the mortgage loan was underwritten properly and based upon prudent underwriting practices.
6. Closing documents are reviewed for accuracy, consistency, and compliance with all regulatory requirements pursuant to your QC plan.

QC Sampling

7. The pre-closing QC loan selection methodology is regularly re-evaluated to ensure its effectiveness.
8. If your institution employs a statistical sampling method to determine random post-closing QC sample size, the QC plan must contain the following:
 - a. Method for making the statistical selection
 - b. Variables used in the selection model and how they are defined
 - c. The results of periodic evaluations of the process and the variables
 - d. The establishment of time periods for the evaluations
 - e. In addition to a random selection, a targeted sample size must be considered. Targeted selection criteria must take into account your institution's assessment of the risks inherent in its origination processes, business sources, volume, and product mix, and must be reviewed regularly to ensure criteria is appropriate.
9. If your institution does not employ a statistical sampling method, your institution is required to employ a 10% sampling method to determine post-closing QC sample size. The QC plan must indicate how the 10% sample is selected:
 - a. Total annual MPF Program originations
 - b. Total annual home mortgage production
 - c. Total annual secondary market home mortgage production
10. Every mortgage is allowed a chance of being included for post-closing QC sample selection within the month following its closing date.

Legal Name: _____ MPF Bank: _____

QC Results and Reporting

- 11. Complete records for each mortgage file selected for pre- and post-closing QC review are maintained, including details of inconsistencies found in the mortgage file that may impact the investment quality or eligibility of the loan. Documentation of post-closing QC review should include:
- a. Re-verification of income and employment documentation used in the original underwriting process.
 - b. Re-verification of the source of funds used in the original underwriting process.
 - c. All verbal re-verifications are documented in writing.
 - d. A tri-merge credit report is obtained for all loans selected through the random and targeted QC sampling process.
 - e. A field review appraisal is performed for one out of 10 loans selected for the post-closing QC random sample.
- 12. Discrepancies identified during a mortgage loan file document review must be reassessed and, if outside of tolerances, the loan must be re-underwritten.
- 13. Your institution has a written QC plan that:
- a. Establishes a mortgage target defect rate (evaluated annually) for post-closing QC reviews
 - b. Categorizes defects based on severity. The highest defect severity level is assigned to mortgages determined "not eligible for sale" under the MPF Program.
 - c. Documents how pre- and post-closing QC findings are reported to senior management on a monthly basis.
- 14. All records of all pre-closing and post-closing findings must be retained for a minimum of three years from the date of the completion of the QC review and must include substantiation of any remedial action.
- 15. Post-closing QC findings that adversely affect the investment quality or eligibility for a loan sold under the MPF Program must be communicated in writing to the MPF Program within 30 days.
- Note: The MPF Program must be informed immediately of any incident of fraud or false representation.*

Other

- 16. If your institution utilizes a third party QC service provider for all or a portion of your QC program, please attest to the following:
- a. The services performed by the third party QC provider have been determined to comply with the MPF Program's requirements.
 - b. The performance of the third party QC provider is overseen and evaluated by your institution on a regular basis.
 - c. Corrective actions are applied equally regardless of whether findings are discovered by internal staff or by the third party QC service provider.
 - d. The MPF provider must be informed immediately of any incident of fraud or false representation.
- Note: The MPF Program must be informed immediately of any incident of fraud or false representation.*
- 17. If servicing is transferred, the originating PFI must furnish records of completed QC reviews to the new servicer, or ask that QC is performed by the new servicer. This requirement must be included in your institution's QC plan.

MPF Government MBS Mortgage Audit Disclosure:

For Servicing Retained Only

Ginnie Mae conducts audits relating to MPF Government MBS mortgages sold under the MPF Program, in addition to independent audits performed by the MPF Provider, as outlined in MPF Program Guide Chapter 4. PFIs that service, sub-service, or have hired a sub-servicer to service MPF Government MBS mortgages may be in possession of certain documentation needed for the audit and will be asked to provide such documentation to the MPF Provider within a few business days as indicated in the request. The activities listed below are some of the frequently focused areas of Ginnie Mae audits for which PFIs should have the required government agency processes in place and be prepared to provide all relevant records:

- Cash Management
- Collections
- Liquidations
- Claims
- Delinquencies
- Investor Reporting

In addition, the PFI's written procedures as required by the government agency, and any applicable supporting documentation, should be readily available upon request. The list below contains some examples of commonly requested documentation:

- Bank Account Activity
- Collection Notes
- Loan Histories
- Property Inspection and Preservation Evidence
- Evidence of Loss Mitigation (Foreclosure, Bankruptcy Filings, or Forbearance)
- Proof of Claims for Bankruptcy Loans and Motions for Relief (if applicable)
- Letter Logs
- State Foreclosure Requirements
- Payment History
- VALERI Event Reporting (VA Loans)
- Neighborhood Watch
- Escrow Analysis
- Evidence of MIP or Guaranty Insurance Payments
- Evidence of current Hazard Insurance Coverage or Master Insurance Policy for condominium or PUD loans as applicable
- Bank Overdrafts
- File Documentation
- Government Agency Audit or Review and any necessary corrective action

In addition to the MPF Program's requirements for MPF Government MBS mortgages in the MPF Program Guide, PFIs should also refer to the most recent versions of the applicable government agency guides to ensure their compliance with the agency's mortgage documentation and procedural requirements.
